

Do your part to

Help Preserve Long Island's Water Supply

The Long Island Commission for Aquifer Protection's Conservation Subcommittee is seeking your input on your household water use and what would motivate you to embrace conservation-oriented measures.

If you want to offer your valuable insights as part of a conservation focus group, please contact Tim Motz at tim.motz@scwa.com

Working together, we can ensure Long Island has an ample supply of drinking water for future generations!

